Notes to the consolidated financial statements

1. Basis of presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. The fiscal year ended on September 27, 2025 and contained 52 weeks. Certain prior-period amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current presentation.

2. Revenue

Revenue is recognised when control of the product or service transfers to the customer. Total net revenue for fiscal 2025 was $416,161 million (fiscal 2024: $391,035 million).

3. Income taxes

The provision for income taxes was $20,719 million on income before income taxes of $132,729 million, an effective tax rate of 15.6%.

4. Share repurchases

During fiscal 2025 the company repurchased shares in the open market under programmes authorised by the Board of Directors. Repurchases are recorded as a reduction of shareholders' equity. The total returned to shareholders through repurchases and dividends is reflected in net cash used in financing activities of $120,686 million.

5. Commitments and contingencies

The company is not party to any legal proceedings that management expects to have a material adverse effect on the financial position or results of operations.

Liquidity and capital resources

At September 27, 2025 the company held $35,934 million of cash and cash equivalents and $18,763 million of short-term marketable securities, a combined $54,697 million.

Long-term debt was $78,328 million. Net cash provided by operating activities was $111,482 million and capital expenditure was $12,715 million.

Subsequent events

On October 14, 2025 the Board of Directors approved a quarterly dividend of $0.26 per share, payable on November 14, 2025 to shareholders of record on November 7, 2025. The Board also approved an additional share repurchase authorisation of $90 billion.

Critical accounting estimates

Management considers the recognition of revenue, the measurement of income taxes and the assessment of impairment of long-lived assets to be the most significant estimates. Actual results may differ from those estimates.

Forward-looking statements

This report contains forward-looking statements about future revenue, margins and capital returns. These statements are based on current expectations and are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially.

Controls and other information

Management’s report on internal control

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining adequate internal control over financial reporting. Management assessed the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting as of September 27, 2025 and concluded that it was effective.

Audit

The consolidated financial statements were audited by an independent registered public accounting firm. The firm also audited the effectiveness of internal control over financial reporting.
